

WOOD GROUND, IN THORNHILL.

To be SOLD by AUCTION,

At the Strafford Arms Inn, in Wakefield, on Friday, the 23th Day of October, 1817, at Three in the Afternoon :

A BOUT SEVEN ACRES of WOOD GROUND, with Two New erected COTTAGES therein, belonging to Assignees of Messrs. Butler and Hodgson, Bankrupts, being the North End of the Lady Wood, in Thornhill, and adjoining the Calder Coal & Iron Works.—The Wood contains valuable Beds of Coal and Iron Stone, which it is supposed may be got to great advantage.—Also, Ten Shares in the Huddersfield Canal.

Particulars may be had of John Hague, Esq. of Crow Nest; or of John Ikin, Esq. near Mirfield, (Two of the Assignees;) or of Mr. Thoms Butler, Kirkstall Forge, near Leeds; or of Mr. Birks, Hemingfield, near Barnsley.