

WHEREAS GEORGE MIDWOOD, Apprentice to George Lees, Cordwainer, of Mirfield, did, on Tuesday Night last, ABSCOND from his Master, without any just Cause; whoever will apprehend him, and lodge him in One of his Majesty's Gaols, shall be rewarded by applying to his said Master. When he left he had on a Corbeau long Coat, and Waistcoat of the same, otherwise a Yellow Waistcoat, along with Fustian Trowsers. He stands about Five Feet Five Inches—dark Complexion—and rather slender made.—Mirfield, Aug. 15, 1819.
