

THE MALTING BUSINESS.—We have the pleasure to find that this trade is extending itself very largely in the vale of Calder, in this county. Formerly the publicans in Lancashire and Yorkshire were supplied with Malt from the neighbourhood of Newark-upon-Trent, but now the supply is furnished from Mirfield and the neighbouring districts, quite as advantageously and with greater facilities in the transit.