

DEWSBURY AND EALAND ROAD.—
NOTICE is hereby given, That the TRUSTEES of the Turnpike Road, under an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Fourth, for Repairing, Amending, and Improving the Road from Dewsbury to Ealand, in the West Riding of the County of York, will meet at the House of Mr. Joseph Crosley, the Black Bull Inn, in Mirfield, in the said Riding, on Thursday, the Eighth Day of November next, at the Hours of Two in the Afternoon, to determine upon the placing a TOLL GATE across a Diversion of the said Turnpike Road, from Nun Brook to Stocks Bank, and to make such Order therein, and for the Erection of a suitable Toll House, Outhouse, and other Conveniences thereto, as to the Trustees present at such Meeting shall seem expedient and necessary.—Dated this Fifteenth Day of October, 1838.
F. LEDGARD, Clerk to the said Trustees.