

You can search for more articles at <http://leedsmercury.mirfield-2ndlook.info>

TO BE LET, with immediate Possession, all that well-accustomed PUBLIC-HOUSE, Sign of the SHEPLEY'S ARMS, (formerly called Six Ringers,) situate in the Central Part of the Parish of Mirfield, near Dewsbury, together with Four Acres of LAND adjoining the Premises. Also the Brewhouse, Stables, Mistal, Cart Shed, and all other necessary Conveniences. The present Occupier is giving up Business on account of ill-Health. The Land, Stock, and Furniture to be taken at a fair Valuation. For further Particulars apply on the Premises.—Mirfield, May 19, 1843.

You can search for more articles at <http://leedsmercury.mirfield-2ndlook.info>