

RECOVERY OF STOLEN PROPERTY.—A robbery was committed at the shop of Mrs. Sharp, draper, &c., Mirfield, in October last. Henry Hargreaves, the person who committed the robbery, was sentenced to be transported for life, at the late Assizes. After his conviction he made known to a person of the name of Makin, who was in the same ward with himself, that a quantity of handkerchiefs, stockings, and shoes, the property of Mrs. Sharp, were lodged in a barn at Dalton. He wished Makin to send him some handkerchiefs and stockings, and keep the rest for his trouble; instead of which, he acquainted Mrs. Sharp, who found the property where the prisoner had described, of the value of about three pounds ten shillings.
