ROYAL FORESTERS. — On Whit-Tuesday, the White Rose Court of Royal Foresters, No. 159, held their twentieth anniversary at the house of Mr. J. A. Rhodes, the Black Bull Inn, Mirfield. About 50 sat down to dinner. It was announced that there was not a single arrear owing from any member, and that it was the fifth successive year on which the like gratifying intelligence had been communicated. The funds of the society were also in a very flourishing condition. The remainder of the evening was spent in the greatest harmony.
