

You can search for more articles at <http://leedsmercury.mirfield-2ndlook.info>

TO LET, and may be entered to immediately, the excellent MESSUAGE or Dwelling-house, called NUN-BROOK HOUSE, in Mirfield, suitable for the residence of a respectable family, situate near the Cooper-Bridge Station, and about a mile from the Mirfield Station of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway; with outbuildings, and twelve to twenty acres of rich Pasture LAND, (or more, if required,) lying in the valley of the River Calder, immediately surrounding the house, and within three miles of Huddersfield. For further particulars apply to Mr. HENRY HOLT, Wakefield.

You can search for more articles at <http://leedsmercury.mirfield-2ndlook.info>