

BEER OFFENCE.—On Monday, at the Court-house, before J. B. Greenwood and E. B. Wheatley, Esqrs., Jonathan Lee, of Mirfield, was charged by John Haworth, the constable, with having company in his house during divine service, on Sunday afternoon, the 29th of August. On the afternoon of that day defendant's house was visited by Haworth, and Swift, another constable, who, on trying the door, found it fast, but hearing a noise in the house suspected that all was not right, and upon obtaining admission, went up stairs, and there found one man in bed with his clothes on, and another just getting in. Fined £1, and 12s. 6d. costs.
