

You can search for more articles at <http://leedsmercury.mirfield-2ndlook.info>

CART DRIVER FINED.—On Monday last, Mr. Haworth, the Mirfield constable, preferred a complaint before John Hague and F. Wormald, Esqrs., against Charles Ramsden, of Clifton, farmer, for riding in a cart without having reins to the horses. About half-past eleven o'clock on Saturday evening, the 25th June, Mr. Haworth and Mr. Clough, another constable, were standing in East-thorp-lane, when they saw a cart with two horses, but they could not see a driver. They stopped the horses, and then found the driver lying at the bottom of the cart, drunk. Defendant pleaded guilty and was fined £1, and 10s. costs.

You can search for more articles at <http://leedsmercury.mirfield-2ndlook.info>