

You can search for more articles at <http://leedsmercury.mirfield-2ndlook.info>

MIRFIELD.

SACRILEGE.—Late on Wednesday night, or early on Thursday morning last, the parish church of Mirfield was broken into, and a large number of bibles and prayer and hymn books were removed from the church into the church yard, where they were left, not being, apparently, sufficiently valuable spoil to induce the depredators to remove them further. Nothing else was disturbed in the church. An entrance was obtained by one of the windows.

You can search for more articles at <http://leedsmercury.mirfield-2ndlook.info>