

SUDDEN DEATH.—An inquest was held on Saturday last, before T. Taylor, Esq., coroner, at the Flower Pot Inn, Hopton, Mirfield, on the body of William Gooder, a man aged 84 years. Deceased was a farmer and cloth weaver. On Thursday, the day of his death, he attended to his cattle as usual, and appeared in good health. His son Charles having, however, occasion to go into the barn a little after six o'clock during the same evening, found deceased lying dead upon some straw. Verdict, "Died from natural causes."
