

ESTATE IN HOPTON.

Lot 64. All that PUBLIC-HOUSE, called Ship Inn, with brew-house, outbuildings, cottages, and appurtenances, and a Close of LAND, called the Croft, situate near to and on the Hopton side of Shepley Bridge, adjoining the river Calder, in the occupation of Chas. Normanton and his undertenants, containing about five acres, be the same more or less.