

DEWSBURY.

STEALING LEAD.—On Monday last, John Carter, James Duffy, and Thomas Brannan, were brought before John Hague, Esq., and J. B. Greenwood, Esq., at Dewsbury, charged with stealing lead. It appears that during the night of the previous Tuesday, upwards of twenty sink pipes were cut from the cottages at Newtown, Mirfield, the property of Mr. Benjamin Wood, Mr. Thomas Ellis, and others. Information was given to the police, at Huddersfield, and it was ascertained that on the Wednesday morning the three prisoners had sold a considerable number of short lengths of lead pipe, at the shop of George Kelly, in Kirkgate. On being compared with the remaining portions of pipe left in the cottages at Newtown, no doubt remained as to its identity. The prisoners were committed for trial at the next sessions.
