

You can search for more articles at <http://leedsmercury.mirfield-2ndlook.info>

CALDER FARM SCHOOL.—REFORMATION IN PRACTICE.—Yesterday week, at about two o'clock in the morning, some buildings adjoining the residence of E. B. Wheatley, Esq., Cote Wall, Mirfield, were discovered to be on fire. On a signal being given, a number of boys belonging to the Calder Farm Reformatory School were quickly on the spot, and assisted with great zeal and effect in extinguishing the flames. A sentiment of gratitude no doubt influenced them in this case, but this instance of good feeling does not stand alone, as on the occasion of the late Barnsley catastrophe they volunteered a liberal subscription from their little savings, towards the relief of the sufferers.

You can search for more articles at <http://leedsmercury.mirfield-2ndlook.info>