

FATAL RAILWAY ACCIDENT. — Yesterday, Mr. Jewison, coroner, held an inquest at the Durham Ox Inn, Bradford, relative to the death of John Cole, thirty-seven years of age, who died at the Infirmary on Wednesday last. The deceased was in the employment of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company. At the Mirfield station on the 8th inst., when about to couple some waggons, he was run over, and sustained a compound fracture of the right leg. The injury caused his death, and the jury found that it had been accidentally received. The deceased has left a widow and three children living at Bradford.
