

MIRFIELD.

PRESENTATION TO A POSTMAN. — A short time since it was determined that a subscription should be set on foot in Mirfield in order to present to Mr. Joseph Cowburn, who has been postman at that place for upwards of thirty-three years, some testimonial for his long and faithful services. The parish was accordingly canvassed, and the result was that contributions amounting to sixty guineas were subscribed. On Wednesday evening last, a supper took place in a large room belonging to Mrs. Fairburn, of Royds House, (which was kindly lent for the occasion), when the amount subscribed was handed to Mr. Cowburn, and the "Old Post," of course, made a feeling and suitable reply.
