COLLISION AT HEATON LODGE. — Yesterday, another collision took place on the railway at Heaton Lodge Junction, about half-past six in the morning. The weather was very thick and prevented the signals being clearly seen, the result was that a Lancashire and Yorkshire goods train coming from Mirfield towards Huddersfield came in contact with a London and North-Western goods train that was shunting at Heaton station, and ran into some of the waggons. Some of the waggons were damaged, and the line was blocked by their being forced off the line.
