FATAL ACCIDENT.—An inquest was held yesterday, at the Bull's Head Inn, Mirfield, before Mr. Thomas Taylor, coroner, on view of the body of Wm. Hinchliffe, who met with his death by drowning on the previous day. The deceased, it appeared, was steering an empty boat on the river Calder, near Mirfield, and was near Greenwood Lock when a sudden rush of water from the cloughs forced the rudder aside, and caused the tiller handle to knock him into the river, where he was drowned. A verdict of "Accidental death" was returned.
