FATAL ACCIDENT AT RAVENSTHORPE.—Yesterday evening Mr. Taylor, coroner, held an inquiry at Ravensthorpe, Mirfield, touching the death of Benjamin Atack, aged fifty years, a willyer. He was employed on Wednesday at the Old Mill putting a strap on a pulley in motion, and while so engaged his clothing became entangled with the shaft, and he was drawn up and taken round several times, being ultimately thrown against a wall with great violence. The jury having had this evidence laid before them, returned a verdict to the effect that he had been “Accidentally killed.”
