

At Mirfield a deal of damage was done, but no lives are reported to have been lost. Two keels have been deposited high and dry in a field at Shepley-bridge, and a couple of others, as well as a narrow boat, lie on shore at Battyeford.