A GIRL DROWNED AT MIRFIELD.—On Saturday afternoon the body of a girl, named Zillah Vicarman, the daughter of a shoemaker, residing at Leeds, was found in the river Calder, at Mirfield. About eleven o'clock in the forenoon, Ellen Wilson (with whom the deceased lived as nurse), sent her with a can to the river for some water, and as she did not return within a reasonable time, search was made and the body of the girl was found close to the spot where she had to go for water. It is thought that she overreached herself in trying to fill the can with water.
