

SUSPECTED SUICIDE THROUGH DISAPPOINTED LOVE.—Yesterday forenoon the body of Richard Hall, of New Tanhouse, Mirfield (employed as an operative in one of the woollen mills at Ravensthorpe), was found in the river Calder. How he got into the river is not known, but as he was seen with his sweetheart yesterday morning, and was apparently disagreeing with her, it is believed that he drowned himself.