

THE LATE SUICIDE AT MIRFIELD.—Yesterday Mr. Taylor held an inquest on the body of Richard Hall, of New Temhouse, Mirfield, whose body was found on Monday in the river Calder. It appeared that he went to his work that morning at the usual hour, but about seven o'clock was seen by his sweetheart near the river side. He said he was in trouble, and burst into tears, but did not say what was the cause of his grief. In a short time afterwards his corpse was seen in the water. A verdict to the effect that he had committed suicide when of unsound mind was returned by the jury.
