

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE AT MIRFIELD.—A determined attempt was made by Mrs. Mary Pearson, of Knowle, Mirfield, on Monday night, to commit suicide. She is the wife of Mr. Joseph Pearson, gardener, and he was engaged in reading an hymn which she had selected, when she got an old razor and cut her throat with it. The windpipe was partially severed, but luckily the jugular vein was untouched, and Mr. Marsden, surgeon, who was called in, believes she will recover. Mrs. Pearson had been in a desponding state of mind for some time.
