

PETITIONS.—In the House of Lords on Thursday, Viscount Midleton presented petitions from the parishioners of Upper Eopton, against any bill sanctioning the performance within churchyards of other religious services than those of the Church of England.