

DEATH OF A BOY FROM BURNS.—On Saturday morning a child, named Samuel Walker, six years of age, who lived with his uncle and aunt, at Mirfield, whilst playing with fire, got his clothes ignited, and before the flames could be extinguished the lad was so badly burned that he died at the Huddersfield Infirmary on Sunday night.