

DEATH BY DROWNING.—An inquest was held yesterday morning on the body of a boatman who had been found on Saturday afternoon in the Aire and Calder canal at Mirfield. Evidence was given showing that the deceased was John Southwell, a boatman, and a native of Todmorden, and that he was found dead in Greenwood Lock on Saturday. He was last seen alive on Wednesday night, when he left the Gardeners' Arms. A verdict of "Found drowned" was returned.
