

DEWSBURY.

THEFT AT MIRFIELD.—Yesterday, at the Police-court, Bernard McKinn, shoemaker, late in the employ of Mr. John Furniss, near Mirfield, was charged with stealing a pair of boots. The prisoner was served with the materials for making six pairs of boots, but he only made five, and it was proved that he stole the sixth when finished. Prisoner, who had no defence, was committed to gaol for three months.
