

MEETING OF MINERS AT MIRFIELD.—At a meeting of coal miners on strike, held at the Savile Arms, in Mirfield, yesterday, it was resolved to stand out against the proposed reduction. It was also agreed that the proceedings at the coming inquest on the bodies of the men killed by the late explosion of gas at Park Colliery should be watched in the interest of the relatives of the deceased and the Union. Mr. Beddoes presided, and he, Mr. Cowey, and others addressed the meeting.
