

DEATH OF A WELL-KNOWN CLERGYMAN.—On Sunday morning, at an early hour, the Rev. Canon Nevin, M.A., late Vicar of Mirfield, died at his residence, Brooklyn, Hopton, at the age of 69 years. The deceased resigned his living last year on account of failing health, but he had only been laid up for about a week from the attack which caused his death. The reverend gentleman came to Mirfield as a Curate at the Parish Church, and subsequently he was appointed the first Incumbent of Christ Church, Battyeford, and afterwards Vicar of Mirfield in 1869.
