

An order has been issued by the War Office for the consolidation of the 6th (Huddersfield), 32nd (Holmfirth), and the 41st (Mirfield) Corps of West York Rifle Volunteers (comprising the 5th Administrative Battalion) to the 34th (Saddleworth) Corps, under the title of the 6th West Riding of Yorkshire Volunteer Corps. The corps will consist of ten companies, with a maximum strength of 1,000 of all ranks, and will necessitate the appointment of a second major. The proposal is not looked on with much favour.
