

A BOY DROWNED.—Yesterday an inquest was held at Mirfield on the body of James Fawcett, of Hopton, aged 14 years. Deceased the previous afternoon was trying to reach a piece of timber floating by him in the Calder, but lost his footing, and falling in, was drowned. A verdict in accordance with the facts was returned by the jury.