

TESTIMONIAL TO A STATION-MASTER.—A testimonial of 100 guineas has just been presented to Mr. James Wright, late station-master for upwards of 30 years at the Mirfield railway station, and who had been 40 years in the service of the company. Mr. Wright gained the respect of all with whom he came in contact, and recently resigned in consequence of increasing infirmity, the company allowing him one year's salary from the date of his resignation. A number of influential local gentlemen undertook to solicit subscriptions. Mr. Wright is now living in retirement at Huddersfield.
