

SUDDEN DEATH AT RAVENSTHORPE. — An inquest has been held at the Craven Heifer Inn in that village, touching the death of Wm. Haigh, 29 years of age, who died at that house. Deceased was in the tap-room with friends, sober, and apparently in good health, but was seized with a fit, and died in a few minutes.— “Died from natural causes” was the verdict returned.