

FATAL ACCIDENT AT RAVENSTHORPE.—Yesterday about twelve o'clock at noon, George Lockwood, aged 19 years, of Queen-street, Ravensthorpe, was found dead in the engine-room at the bottom of the pit belonging to Messrs. Barraclough and Nevin, Dark-lane, Ravensthorpe. It appears that the deceased was employed as engine-tenter, and at 11.05 he was seen cleaning the engine by a collier named Arthur James. It is supposed that he must have been struck by the governor-balis or some other part of the machinery.
