

An elderly woman, Mrs. Wormald, of Old Bank, Mirfield, died yesterday from injuries received the previous day through being run over. A horse, drawing a ginger-beer cart belonging to Mr. Hirst, of Liversedge, took fright while being driven by him along the road near Nickhouse Mill, and in turning a corner suddenly the animal knocked Mrs. Wormald down as she was standing at her door, and inflicted injuries from which she died.