

THE MIRFIELD DROWNING CASE.—Last night an inquiry, which lasted several hours, was held at Mirfield, touching the death of Martha Cousins (19), domestic servant, who committed suicide on Wednesday night in the Calder and Hebble canal. Her sweetheart saw her near the canal and tried to prevent her, but she pushed him away, and running to the water, jumped in and was drowned. A verdict was returned of "Committed suicide whilst of unsound mind."