

A MIRFIELD MAN DROWNED.—On Saturday afternoon the body of Isaac Gooder (47), late green of the employ of Mr. J. H. Wheatley, of the Hagg, Mirfield, was found in the river Calder, near Thornhill Lees, and was taken to the Perseverance Inn, to await an inquest. The discovery was made by the brother of the deceased, who had been missing since the 3rd inst. There are marks of violence on the body.