

THE MIRFIELD DROWNING CASE.—Yesterday an inquest was held at the Perseverance Inn, Thornhill Lees, touching the death of Isaac Goodyear (47), late groom in the employ of Mr. J. H. Wheatley, Mirfield, who was found in the Calder at Thornhill Lees, on Saturday, by his brother. He had been absent from the 3rd inst. It is supposed that he fell into the water at Gregory Spring, where the fence is broken down.—A verdict of “Accidentally drowned” was returned.
