

DROWNED AT MIRFIELD.—Yesterday an inquest took place at the Black Bull Inn, Mirfield, on view of the body of Elliott Brown, 25 years of age, painter, of Emley Moor, near Wakefield. It transpired that the deceased was returning from Huddersfield, where he had been working for some time, and accidentally fell into the canal. His body was found by a boatman on Thursday. A verdict to that effect was returned.