

HOWGATE'S Woollen Mills, at Ravensthorpe, Yorkshire, were partially destroyed by fire on Saturday afternoon. The damage is estimated at £30,000. The outbreak originated at the top story of the building, and the operatives had barely time to escape before the walls fell in.