

FOUND DROWNED AT RAVENSTHORPE.—Yesterday morning the dead body of Thomas Mort, aged forty years, labourer, of Upper Hopton, was found in the Calder, near to Low Mills, Ravensthorpe. It is supposed that he fell into the water accidentally. He would have to cross the river by a bridge on his way home.