

MIRFIELD LOCAL BOARD.—At a meeting of this board held on Wednesday night, a letter was read from the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company, stating that the directors had decided to name the new station in course of construction in Dark-lane, Ravensthorpe, “Northorpe.” A deputation, consisting of the chairman (Mr. J. Milner), Mr. J. Wheatley, and Mr. J. Crowther, was appointed to meet the directors of the same railway company with regard to the alterations which are taking place at Mirfield station, with a view to having a wider entrance from the main road.
